Herd Name and Tattoo Registration (Please Print clearly)

(You do not need to select your herd name and tattoo to join. Be sure you select wisely. If unsure you can always apply for one later.)

A Herd name and tattoo are required before registering your farm's offspring. You MUST request both a herdname and tattoo. When selecting a herd name, remember that you ONLY have a total of 40 characters for herd name plus a goat's individual name and spaces so choose accordingly. Herdnames and tattoos should be as individual as you are. PBA already has many herd names registered, as well as tattoos, so when making your selection the more unique you can make them the more chance you have of getting exactly what you want. Herd names and tattoos are registered forever and can never be chosen by anyone else.
