

Washington County Pygora Show

By Erica Brown

Open Class and 4-H Pygora goat exhibitors were at the Washington County Fair from Thursday, July 26 through Sunday, July 29. The 4-H Pygora goat barn is overseen by Janet Tilp, and her husband, Andy Tilp is the goat barn superintendent. It takes a lot of work to put together a pen count, making sure all exhibitors have pens and tack space to work around in. This year all the goats were moved to a different location on the fairgrounds and had a very nice, large, covered show ring to use. It was a very hot four days, but the animals and the exhibitors braved the weather and made the most of our time together.

We hope more open class Pygora goat breeders will come to the Washington County Fair next year. Julie Case, the Washington County Fair Vendor Coordinator and fellow PBA member, is working tirelessly to make improvements. The fair really is top notch venue, with a lot of public interest in the Pygora goats. And it has the nicest premium payouts of any county fair I have attended.

Unfortunately, as hard as we worked, we didn't make sanction for the wether show. We only had 2 registered owners (of the 4 we needed) and were one wether short of the required 8 wethers. We will work again next year on getting more breeders, owners, and wethers to the show. Please consider attending next year, July 25-28, 2019 and bringing your does, wethers, and fleece and keep this show vibrant and growing.

The sanctioned Pygora Doe Show was judged by Lisa Roskopf. She had 16 does to judge on Saturday, July 28. Andy Tilp was show photographer. Lianne Johansen handled ribbon duty.

The Grand Champion Doe was Hawks Mountain Ranch Jelly Roll bred by Lisa Roskopf and owned by Lindsay Brown and the Reserve Grand Champion Doe was Quail Hollow Farm Angel Cake bred and owned by Lindsay Brown.

Both of these winning does are owned by youth who are actively involved in Fiber Goat 4-H projects. Great job to all our youth members! The oldest doe in the show was 10-year-old Trillium Valley Cream Puff owned by Janet Tilp. She is a phenomenal doe with glorious fleece and it was a joy to see her in the show ring!

This is the first year we have had a Sanctioned Pygora Fleece Show at the Washington County Fair. We had 13 fleeces entered, both Type A and Type B Pygora fiber. With Janet Tilp's assistance, the fleece show was moved into the air-conditioned 4-H pavilion, where we enjoyed cooler temperatures and chairs to sit in while Lisa judged the show. She gave a running commentary as she judged each fleece.

The Grand Champion Fleece was awarded to Trillium Valley Farm Lina, whose Light Brown Type B fleece was sheared at age 8 years, and weighed 8 oz. Lina was bred and is owned by Janet Tilp. The Reserve Grand Champion Fleece was won by wether, Hawks Mountain Ranch Oreoh, whose white Type B fleece was sheared at age 9 years and weighed 16 oz. Oreoh was bred by Lisa Roskopf and is owned by Janet Tilp.

A huge thank you to all the exhibitors and the volunteers who made the show possible this year: Andy Tilp, Janet Tilp, Lisa Roskopf, Lianne Johansen, and Julie Case.
